

AGENDA

The Department of Environmental Protection
Presents
a Public Workshop on the Caloosahatchee Estuary Nutrient TMDL

Thursday, December 18, 2008
9:30 AM

South Florida Water Management District
Lower West Coast Regional Service Center
1st Floor Conference Room
2301 McGregor Boulevard
Fort Myers, FL 33901

- 9:30 AM Scott McClelland (CDM) – Welcome and Introductions
- 9:45 AM Jan Mandrup-Poulsen (FDEP) – The TMDL process and how it is being applied in the Caloosahatchee Estuary
- 10:15 AM Mike Schmidt (CDM) – A brief summary of data gathering and supporting studies conducted in the Caloosahatchee Watershed
- 10:30 AM Chris Wallen (DSLLC) – A description of the models and modeling approach used in the Caloosahatchee Watershed
- 11:00 AM Break
- 11:15 AM Wayne Magley (FDEP) – An examination of the dissolved oxygen levels in the Caloosahatchee Estuary
- Noon Lunch
- 1:15 PM Nathan Bailey (FDEP) – Update on modeling results for nutrients, chlorophyll, light penetration in the Caloosahatchee Estuary, and proposed TMDL reductions

Q & A Session

Formal Comments

Wrap Up (Scott McClelland)