

THE SCCF LEGACY SOCIETY

*Determine Your Planned Giving...
Then Choose the Gift Plan that Works for You and SCCF*

Your Gift	Bequest in a Will	Charitable Remainder Unitrust	Charitable Lead Trust	Charitable Gift Annuity	Gift of Retirement Assets	Gift of Real Estate	Gift of Life Insurance
Your Goal	Defer a gift to SCCF until after your lifetime.	Receive regular income, avoid capital gains tax and leave the remainder of your assets to SCCF.	Reduce gift and estate taxes on assets you pass to children or grandchildren.	Supplement your income while making a gift with steady payments that are partially tax-free	Make a large gift to SCCF of heavily taxed IRAs or other retirement benefit plans.	Make a gift of an asset no longer needed, and generate an income tax deduction.	Make a large gift to SCCF at your death with little cost to yourself during your lifetime.
How You Make the Gift	Name SCCF in your will. Designate a percentage or a share of the residue, or specify an exact amount.	Create a trust that pays a fixed percentage, which must be 5% or greater, of the trust's assets as revalued annually.	Create a charitable trust that pays a fixed or variable income to SCCF for a specific term; part or all of the principal is retained for heirs.	Enter into a charitable gift annuity contract with SCCF that pays a set amount.	Name SCCF as the beneficiary of the remainder of the assets after your lifetime.	Donate the property to SCCF.	Contribute to SCCF a paid-up life insurance policy you no longer need.
Your Benefits	Exempt from federal estate tax.	Receive a variable income for life. Immediate income tax charitable deduction for part of the trust.	Reduces your taxable estate. Your family may keep part or all of the property, often with reduced gift and estate taxes.	Reduce current and future income taxes. Receive stable payments for life with a high rate of return.	Make a gift of high taxed assets. Reduce taxes by as much as 70%.	Receive an immediate fair market value income tax deduction and a reduction or elimination of capital gains tax.	Receive a current income tax deduction.